Targeted Audience: Early childhood professionals and others working to improve the social emotional health of children from birth to 5 years of age, including administrators, coaches, trainers, teachers, early childhood mental health consultants and specialists, early intervention providers and other health professionals.

About the Trainer: Susan Kay, MA, is a Pyramid Plus Approach certified trainer. She began her early childhood career as a Child & Family Therapist and now trains and coaches in all aspects of addressing challenging behavior and supporting healthy social-emotional development in young children. This will be Susan's 25th complete Pyramid Plus Approach training!

Structure of Training: The materials are developed so participants will be able to apply strategies and tools in their practice. The content is broken down into 18 sessions with specific topics and strategies that provide concrete examples based in a variety of settings (center-based and home).

The Pyramid Plus Approach Training (delivered by a Certified PPA Trainer) meets the requirements for Child Guidance Strategies (ECE 103). PPA is also an approved course in the Colorado Shines Professional Development Information System. In order to receive a certificate of completion you must complete ALL 18 sessions.

If your program participates in the Colorado Shines Quality Improvement (CSQI) program, you may choose to speak to your coach about converting coaching hours to QI funds to cover some or all of the cost of the training.
